We understand that we need to be agile to be truly competitive.

We are inspiring

Our history carries the concept of inspiring people and projects. Even in the face of difficulties, we don't lose our humor and love for the products we manufacture.

Main Character

Your MM carries the personality of a product that becomes the main character at every environment.

Democratic sustainability

Furthermore, bringing ecologically correct products into the lives of our customers, we strive to make them accessible to everyone. Sustainability, responsibility and reciprocity are values that we carry in our DNA.

PROJECT VILLAGE NISSI

We change not only the lives of our employees and customers, but also the lives of families and children in the social projects we support today.

The Nissi Village project was born 14 years ago and today more than 1200 abandoned children live in the village. Among them, albinos, who are considered cursed.

We also contributed with 90 direct jobs and provided assistance to 370 families, mainly of war widows.

Each new conquest is a new will that is renewed, and another link in the construction of lives.
